Strengthens Its Team to Meet Growing Demand

SEAL BEACH, CA - July 2026 - Automotive Excellence of Seal Beach has announced the addition of a new technician to its team. The family-owned shop says the hire reflects steady growth in customer demand over recent months. The hiring expands the shop's ability to deliver timely, thorough service across its full range of repair and maintenance offerings. The additional team member gives the shop greater capacity to handle everything from routine oil changes and brake inspections to engine diagnostics and transmission repair. This growth allows the team to serve more vehicles without compromising the standards that have shaped its reputation for over four decades. For customers throughout the region, the expansion translates directly to shorter wait times and the same quality care they have come to expect.

The shop has provided auto repair services in Seal Beach since opening in 1981. Its reputation is built on the expertise of ASE Certified Master Technicians and the use of modern diagnostic equipment.

This latest hire helps preserve that foundation while increasing the shop's capacity. It also allows the team to serve more drivers seeking dependable, honest auto care in the area. This latest hire helps maintain that foundation while expanding the shop's capacity to serve more drivers seeking dependable, honest auto care in the area.

The shop serves households throughout Seal Beach, Long Beach, Los Alamitos, Garden Grove, Westminster, and nearby Southern California communities. Its continued growth reflects the trust those communities have placed in the business over the years.

A Message From the Owner

"Growing our team means we can keep delivering the honest, quality service our customers expect without making them wait. This hire reflects the trust Seal Beach has placed in us, and we take that responsibility seriously every single day." said Andrew Harris, Owner of Automotive Excellence of Seal Beach.
