

Martin School Of Dance & Baton Recognized for Over 70 Years of Inspiring Dancers With 2026 Consumer Choice Award

REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA, August 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Martin School of Dance & Baton has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the School – Dance category. This recognition reflects the school's long-standing commitment to quality instruction, student development, and creating an inclusive environment where dancers of all ages can thrive.

For more than 70 years, Martin School of Dance & Baton has been a cornerstone of Regina's dance community, helping generations of students discover their passion for dance while building confidence, discipline, and lifelong skills. The school's welcoming, family-oriented atmosphere ensures every student feels supported, whether they dance recreationally or pursue advanced training.

"At Martin School of Dance & Baton, we believe every dancer deserves a place where they feel encouraged, challenged, and valued," said the Martin School of Dance & Baton team. "Receiving this Consumer Choice Award is an honour and a reflection of the trust families have placed in us for generations. We're proud to continue providing a positive environment where students can grow both as dancers and as individuals."

What sets Martin School of Dance & Baton apart is its commitment to meeting students where they are. The experienced teaching staff works closely with each dancer to help them find the pathway that best aligns with their goals, while emphasizing healthy progression, proper technique, and long-term development.
