Dogs love these liquid dog food toppers with flavors of global cuisines

Pet Relish International Cuisines are premium, broth-based liquid pour-over toppers built on a rich chicken broth base and elevated with carefully selected, globally inspired, pet-safe herbs and seasonings. The current line includes two flavors:

- Indian Chicken Broth — featuring turmeric, cumin, and coriander for digestive support, anti-inflammatory benefits, and immune health
- Italian Chicken Broth — featuring oregano, rosemary, thyme, and sage for antioxidant protection, cognitive support, and immune function

Each recipe is designed to transform any meal — dry kibble, wet food, or mixed — into a globally inspired experience that even the most reluctant eaters embrace. The three-step application (shake, pour, mix) makes daily nutritional enrichment effortless for busy dog owners. All recipes are made with human-grade ingredients, contain no artificial flavors, fillers, or preservatives, and are manufactured in the USA in an FDA-registered facility.
