

Danny Silvertone's Upcoming Album 'Midnight' Available for Pre-Order at Independent Record Stores

Recording artist Danny Silvertone has announced his upcoming album, Midnight, is available for CD pre-order at select independent record stores.

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recording artist Danny Silvertone has announced that his upcoming album, Midnight, is available for CD pre-order at select independent record stores across the United States. The release focuses on physical media formats, with Silvertone partnering with independent retailers to offer the album on compact disc. While digital streaming remains a primary distribution method in the music industry, Silvertone is focusing on physical releases for this project. Midnight continues the artist's work in the alt-pop genre. By coordinating the physical release with independent record shops, the project aims to direct sales to local businesses and the independent music retail sector.

"My goal for Midnight was to provide a physical format for listeners," says Danny Silvertone. "Partnering with independent record stores is a practical way to maintain the availability of physical media while directing business to local music retailers."

Pre-orders for the Midnight CD are currently open through several independent retailers. Participating record stores carrying the pre-order include:

DBZ Books N Records (Corona, CA): An independent physical media retailer managed by Dilver Lizama.

Darkside Records (Poughkeepsie, NY):
An independent music retailer located in the Hudson Valley.

Vinyl Junkies Record Shack (San Diego, CA): An independent record store owned and operated by Eric Howarth.

Sold Out Vinyl Records (Englewood, CO): An independent record store in the Denver metropolitan area.

Relix Shop (Brooklyn, NY): The retail storefront operated by the music publication Relix.

These independent retailers are processing pre-orders through their respective websites.
