

Excel Promotions Announces New Calgary Location, Expanding Business Opportunity in Canada

Excel Promotions opens a new location on 18th Avenue NE in Calgary, Alberta, expanding team growth and telecom customer outreach in Northeast Calgary.

CALGARY, ALBERTA, CANADA, August 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Calgary, Alberta — 2026 — Excel Promotions has announced the opening of a new business location on 18th Avenue NE in Calgary, Alberta, marking the next step in the company's continued growth. The new location supports Excel Promotions' expanding presence in Northeast Calgary and creates a business opportunity in Canada, as well as for team development, customer outreach, and local market engagement.

The expansion reflects Excel Promotions' ongoing work with leading telecommunications companies as the business continues helping connect more communities through customer-focused service and direct engagement. With the new Calgary location, the company is positioned to strengthen its regional presence while supporting a growing team.

New Location on 18th Avenue NE

Excel Promotions' new location on 18th Avenue NE gives the company a stronger base in Northeast Calgary, an area that continues to see steady residential and commercial activity. The move allows the business to increase its reach while remaining connected to the local community.

The new space will support day-to-day operations, team training, and continued hiring as Excel Promotions grows. Leadership views the expansion as an important step in creating a stronger foundation for long-term development in Calgary and beyond.

Creating New Opportunities for the Team

As Excel Promotions expands, the company is focused on creating new pathways for individuals who are ready to grow professionally. The opening of the new Calgary location provides more room for team members to learn, develop, and take on greater responsibility as the business continues to scale.

This growth also supports a broader business opportunity in Canada by giving motivated individuals access to hands-on experience in customer service, sales, and leadership development. Excel Promotions aims to build from within while supporting the needs of its telecommunications partners.

Strengthening Team Development in Northeast Calgary

The new 18th Avenue NE location will also give Excel Promotions more room to support team training and internal development. As the company continues to grow, the expanded space will allow team members to take part in coaching, daily planning, and hands-on learning in a more organized setting.

This added capacity is expected to support both new hires and current team members as they build experience in customer service, communication, and leadership. By investing in a stronger local base, Excel Promotions is preparing its team to meet growing demand while maintaining a consistent approach to customer engagement across Calgary.

Supporting Telecommunications Partners and Local Growth

Excel Promotions continues to partner with leading telecommunications companies, helping connect customers with services that support daily communication and connectivity. Through consistent customer service and direct outreach, the company helps increase awareness and access across the communities it serves.

As a local marketing agency in Calgary, Excel Promotions is focused on building strong customer relationships while supporting client growth goals. The new Northeast Calgary location will allow the company to increase local engagement and continue developing its presence in the market.

Looking Ahead

The opening of the new Calgary location marks an important milestone for Excel Promotions as it continues expanding its business and team. With a stronger presence on 18th Avenue NE, the company is prepared to support more customers, develop new talent, and contribute to continued growth in the region.

As Excel Promotions moves forward, the company remains focused on building a sustainable business opportunity in Canada through strong partnerships, reliable customer service, and continued investment in its people.
