Adega Gaucha Brazilian Steakhouse celebrates five years in Orlando with guests, team members and a special anniversary dining experience on August 5, 2026.

More than a one-night event, the celebration reflected Adega Gaucha's evolution from a single Brazilian steakhouse in Orlando into a growing hospitality brand with three Florida restaurants and a fourth location scheduled to open in Georgia.

“Orlando is where our story began, and this anniversary belongs to the guests and team members who helped us grow,” said Ricardo Oliveira, founder and CEO of Adega Gaucha. “Five years later, our purpose remains the same: to bring people together through exceptional food and genuine Brazilian hospitality. We are grateful for every celebration shared around our tables and excited for the next chapter.”

Since opening its doors in Orlando in 2021, Adega Gaucha has built its dining experience around the traditions of Southern Brazil. Premium meats are roasted over an open flame and served continuously at the table, while the expansive Gourmet Table brings together fresh salads, charcuterie, cheeses, hot dishes and Brazilian-inspired specialties.

The restaurant pairs authentic Brazilian churrasco with attentive service, a curated wine selection and a polished yet welcoming atmosphere. Over the past five years, the Orlando location has become a destination for birthdays, anniversaries, proposals, family dinners, business gatherings and first-time visitors discovering Brazilian steakhouse dining in Central Florida.
