

Safe N Sound Environmental Services Recognized for Comprehensive Environmental Solutions With 2026 Consumer Choice Award

OAKVILLE, ONTARIO, CANADA, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Safe n Sound Environmental Services Ltd. has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Asbestos Removal category for Halton Region. This recognition reflects the company's commitment to protecting the health and safety of homeowners, businesses, and communities through professional environmental remediation and testing services.

Safe n Sound Environmental Services has built a reputation across Southern Ontario by providing reliable environmental assessments, hazardous material removal, and remediation solutions tailored to residential, commercial, and industrial clients. Every project is approached with safety, compliance, and customer peace of mind as the highest priorities.

Our mission has always been to create safer homes, workplaces, and communities by delivering professional environmental services with integrity, expertise, and compassion.”

Safe n Sound Environmental Services Team

“Receiving the Consumer Choice Award is an incredible honour and a reflection of the trust our clients place in our team,” said the Safe n Sound Environmental Services team. “Our mission has always been to create safer homes, workplaces, and communities by delivering professional environmental services with integrity, expertise, and compassion. We're proud to continue expanding our services to meet the evolving needs of our clients.”

What sets Safe n Sound Environmental Services apart is its comprehensive approach to environmental safety. In addition to asbestos testing and abatement, the company provides mold testing and remediation, bulk material testing, air quality testing, respiratory fit testing, clean demolition, drug lab cleanup, COVID-19 sanitization, and specialized safety training programs. This full-service model allows clients to work with one trusted provider for a wide range of environmental challenges.

Responding to growing community needs, Safe n Sound Environmental Services has also expanded its offerings to include professional hoarder cleanup services. Delivered with discretion, compassion, and respect, this new service helps individuals, families, landlords, and property managers safely restore homes while addressing health hazards and creating clean, livable spaces.

Whether removing hazardous materials, improving indoor air quality, or restoring properties after complex environmental situations, Safe n Sound Environmental Services remains committed to providing expert guidance, regulatory compliance, and exceptional customer care on every project.

The Consumer Choice Award is based on independent market research evaluating reputation, customer satisfaction, and overall excellence. This recognition reinforces Safe n Sound Environmental Services' reputation as one of Halton Region's trusted environmental remediation companies, delivering professional solutions that help create safer homes, workplaces, and communities.
