Hangry Joe's Hot Chicken & Wings is opening five new franchise locations within the next 30 days, expanding the Nashville-style hot chicken brand into four states. The new restaurants are located in Palmhurst, Texas; Rock Hill, South Carolina; Durham, North Carolina; Raleigh, North Carolina; and Canton, Michigan.

This way, everyone can try our Chicken Sando, tenders, wings, and more for free, and we are confident they will come back.”

Micah J. Gaudio

To introduce the brand in these markets, each location is offering a buy-one-get-one-free entrée, valued up to $12.99, to customers who download the Hangry Joe's mobile app. The offer applies to new app users and gives first-time guests a low-cost way to sample the menu across a range of house heat levels.

The five new locations can be found online at hangryjoespalmhurst.com (Palmhurst, TX), rockhill.hangryjoes.com (Rock Hill, SC), hangryjoesdurham.com (Durham, NC), hangryjoesraleigh.com (Raleigh, NC) and hangryjoescanton.com (Canton, MI).

"We don't have the brand recognition nationally yet, so Hangry Joe's is offering a buy-one-get-one-free entrée up to $12.99 for new app users, and all they need to do is download the app," said Micah Gaudio of GO Agency AI, which is promoting the five new stores. "This way everyone can try our Chicken Sando, tenders, nuggets, wrap, chicken and waffles, salad, loaded fries or loaded mac and cheese for free, and we are confident they will come back."

Menu items covered by the promotion include the signature Chicken Sando, chicken tenders, nuggets, wraps, chicken and waffles, salads, loaded fries and loaded mac and cheese. Hangry Joe's serves its chicken across multiple heat levels, from Plain to its highest "Angry Hot" tier.

Gaudio said the openings reflect a focus on premium, high-visibility locations for the growing brand. "I believe the operations team is committed to securing the best possible sites for the brand," he said. "The food stands out, and it belongs in destination storefronts that match that quality rather than in overlooked spaces."

The five openings add to Hangry Joe's ongoing franchise expansion across the United States. Each new restaurant offers dine-in, takeout and delivery, and the mobile app allows guests to order ahead, track the promotion and access future offers. GO Agency said the app-first launch strategy is designed to build a local customer base quickly in each new market by lowering the barrier for first-time guests to try the menu.

Opening dates for the individual locations will be announced by each restaurant. Customers in Palmhurst, Rock Hill, Durham, Raleigh and Canton are encouraged to download the Hangry Joe's app to confirm availability of the buy-one-get-one-free offer at their nearest participating location.
