WASHINGTON DC / ABU DHABI, DC, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RAINCLOUD DEFENSE today announced the official launch of the RAINCLOUD DEFENSE Speakers Bureau, a specialized initiative designed to connect companies, institutions and government directly with vetted subject matter experts across the global defense and intelligence sectors.

“

The RAINCLOUD DEFENSE Speakers Bureau connects vetted defense and intelligence specialists directly with decision-makers for small-group sessions, executive briefings, and focused advisory work.”

*General John (Mick)
Nicholson, US Army (Ret.)*

The Bureau has a mission: to facilitate senior-level insights and high-impact, technical conversations needed to navigate today's increasingly complex global defense landscape.

RAINCLOUD DEFENSE Speakers Bureau offers deep domain specialization and operational credibility. It provides direct access to verified senior military commanders, defense technology engineers, and national security strategists. They are available for keynotes, specialized technical workshops, closed-door roundtables, executive dinners, and virtual briefings. Members of the Bureau are available on a commercial basis and pro bono where relevant.

"At RAINCLOUD DEFENSE, our mission is all about 'Connecting the Minds that Power the World,'" said Emmanuel Reinert, CEO of RAINCLOUD DEFENSE. "With the launch of our Speakers Bureau, we are bringing that mission to life by giving decision-makers direct, low-friction access to elite operational intelligence, deep-dive technical expertise, and strategic foresight when they need it most."

Leading the initiative's rollout is General John (Mick) Nicholson, US Army (Ret.)

"In situations of high complexity, to build real "Unity of Effort", leaders need candid, objective insights grounded in real-world experience," said General Nicholson. "That's why I'm supporting the launch of the RAINCLOUD DEFENSE Speakers Bureau. The Bureau connects vetted defense and intelligence specialists directly with decision-makers for small-group sessions, executive briefings, and focused advisory work. I am joined by a group of fellow global leaders, available through the Bureau for senior-level briefings and working sessions.."

Beyond its initial launch cohort, the RAINCLOUD DEFENSE Speakers Bureau draws upon a curated network of over 150 vetted defense specialists across three core pillars:

- Technical Excellence: Drones and counter-UAS, military AI and autonomy, cyber and quantum security, advanced hardware platforms, and simulation/synthetic wargaming environments.
- Strategic Foresight: Regional geopolitics, European rearmament, industrial base capacity, critical supply chains, defense contracting, and procurement.
- Inspirational Leadership: High-stakes command experience, organizational resilience, military ethics, and defense education.

The Bureau operates on a streamlined, low-friction brokerage model designed to make senior expert engagements accessible, efficient, and direct.
