

Lifestyle Moving & Storage Now Covers All Five Boroughs as NYC Movers

residential, commercial, long-distance and same-day jobs plus climate-controlled storage in NYC, quoted at a flat rate before any crew is dispatched

NYC, NY, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lifestyle Moving & Storage, a licensed and insured moving company working across all five New York City boroughs, now handles residential, commercial, long-distance and same-day relocations under one roof, backed by more than 210 verified five-star Google reviews earned over eight years in business.

The company operates as NYC movers who cover all five boroughs, from walk-up apartments in Williamsburg and Park Slope to Midtown offices and Upper East Side brownstones. Every job is quoted at a flat rate before a crew is dispatched, and certificates of insurance are issued for buildings that require one ahead of a move-in date. Crews also handle furniture assembly, specialty packing for antiques, art and picture frames, and same-day requests when a closing or lease date shifts.

Alongside relocations, the company runs climate-controlled storage in NYC for customers whose dates do not line up end to end. Terms range from a short-term hold during a renovation to open-ended monthly storage, with itemized photo-tagged inventory and partial retrieval, so a customer can pull one item without emptying a vault.

"Moving in this city is not really about trucks, it is about buildings," said Ivan Martinovic, Founder and Owner of Lifestyle Moving & Storage. "It is the freight elevator window, the COI the management office wants before it lets you in the door, the fifth-floor walk-up with a turn in the stairwell that a sofa does not make. Anyone can carry a couch. What people pay us for is knowing the building before we get there."

The company's verified five-star reviews for movers in NYC sit alongside its credentials: USDOT 3652616, MC 1259586 and NYDOT T-41242. Certificates of insurance are provided at no charge for buildings that request them, which is a standard requirement for most Manhattan and Brooklyn management offices.

Coverage spans Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, the Bronx and Staten Island, including Tribeca, SoHo, Chelsea, the Financial District, DUMBO, Brooklyn Heights, Greenpoint, Bushwick, Long Island City, Astoria and Forest Hills. Long-distance routes and New Jersey moves are handled as well. Estimates are available online or by phone, and residential moves start at [$X] for a studio within a single borough. Same-day availability is offered subject to crew capacity, which is tightest at the end of each month.
