

Arsenal Credit Union partners with FHLB Des Moines to award $20,000 to The Kaufman Fund

ST. LOUIS, MO, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Arsenal Credit Union, in partnership with the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines (FHLB Des Moines), awarded a $20,000 grant to The Kaufman Fund through the Member Impact Fund. The grant reflects Arsenal Credit Union's ongoing commitment to supporting local organizations that strengthen and improve the communities it serves.

The Member Impact Fund provides matching funds to FHLB Des Moines member institutions, enabling organizations like Arsenal Credit Union to expand their community impact and support initiatives that address local needs.

The Kaufman Fund

The Kaufman Fund is a St. Louis nonprofit dedicated to supporting veterans, military families, and at-risk children through food assistance, mental health resources, scholarships, and other essential services. Funding from this grant will help the organization continue providing consistent access to nutritious meals, ease financial burdens for families in need, and promote long-term stability and well-being throughout the community.

"We are deeply grateful to Arsenal Credit Union and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines for this generous $20,000 grant in support of The Kaufman Fund's mission," said Shelia Schneider, Executive Director of The Kaufman Fund. "This investment will help us continue serving veterans throughout the St. Louis region by addressing critical gaps in services through our programs. In 2025, The Kaufman Fund assisted more than 2,000 veterans, and partnerships like this help ensure we can continue providing essential resources and support to those who have served our country. We sincerely thank Arsenal Credit Union and FHLB Des Moines for standing with those who have protected our freedoms.”
