

LODGING DYNAMICS CELEBRATES MUSE HOTEL AWARDS GOLD WIN FOR HOTEL THAYNES

Award follows recent AAA Four Diamond designation, further elevating Park City's newest lifestyle hotel

PROVO, UT, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PROVO, UTAH [August 8, 2026] — Lodging Dynamics Hospitality Group proudly announces that Hotel Thaynes, a Tribute Portfolio Hotel by Marriott, has been recognized as a Gold Winner in the Interior Design – Ski Resort Interiors category at the prestigious MUSE Hotel Awards. The honor comes on the heels of the hotel's recent AAA Four Diamond designation, marking a significant recognition for the reimagined Park City property.

The MUSE Hotel Award recognizes Hotel Thaynes' distinctive design vision, which celebrates Park City's rich mining heritage while delivering a modern mountain hospitality experience. Since its transformation from the former Peaks Hotel, Hotel Thaynes has quickly established itself as one of the destination's most notable boutique hospitality offerings, earning accolades for both its guest experience and thoughtfully curated design.

"Receiving both the AAA Four Diamond designation and now a MUSE Hotel Award is a tremendous achievement for Hotel Thaynes and everyone involved in bringing this vision to life," said Jamie Caraher, Chief Executive Officer of Lodging Dynamics Hospitality Group. "These recognitions reflect our commitment to creating exceptional, experience-driven hotels that honor their destinations while delivering the elevated service, design, and authenticity today's travelers seek."

Located in the heart of Park City, Hotel Thaynes was thoughtfully reimagined to blend historic influences with contemporary design elements, creating an immersive guest experience inspired by the character, culture, and adventurous spirit of the surrounding mountain community.

Designed by Interior Image Group (IIG), the award-winning interiors draw inspiration from Main Street's historic architecture and the region's silver mining legacy. Throughout the hotel, guests encounter warm, layered materials, vibrant accents inspired by a miner's canary, custom lighting reminiscent of mountain lanterns, and design details that celebrate the area's outdoor culture and adventurous heritage. Practical enhancements, including integrated gear storage, boot-drying stations, and thoughtfully designed guestroom features, further support the needs of modern mountain travelers.

The MUSE Hotel Awards recognize exceptional achievements across hotel operations, architecture, and hospitality design, celebrating properties that demonstrate innovation, creativity, and excellence within the global hospitality industry.

The dual recognition from both AAA and the MUSE Hotel Awards further solidifies Hotel Thynes' position as a standout destination in Park City's competitive hospitality landscape and reflects Lodging Dynamics' continued focus on creating memorable guest experiences through thoughtful design, operational excellence, and destination-driven storytelling.
