

Calistoga's 1,000-Foot Harvest Table Returns September 13

"Groovy 70's" Theme Celebrates Food, Wine, and California Wine History

CALISTOGA, CA, UNITED STATES, August 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Visit Calistoga's signature Harvest Table will return to downtown Calistoga on Sunday, September 13, 2026, transforming Lincoln Avenue into an open-air dining room at the foot of the Palisades. The much-anticipated annual event brings together up to 1,000 guests at a spectacular 1,000-foot communal table to celebrate Calistoga's restaurants, wineries and harvest season. Guests will enjoy multi-course dinners prepared by participating Calistoga restaurants beneath the glow of the setting sun.

Guests dine at 1,000-foot-long Calistoga Harvest Table on Lincoln Avenue in front of the iconic green Calistoga National Bank building in downtown Calistoga, California at dusk.

The 2026 event will feature a "Groovy '70s" theme in recognition of the 50th anniversary of the 1976 Judgment of Paris, a blind tasting that pitted California wines against acclaimed French wines. Calistoga-based Chateau Montelena's 1973 Chardonnay won the white wine category, helping establish California as a world-class wine region. Guests are invited to celebrate the era by wearing their favorite 1970s fashions, from bell-bottoms, platform shoes, hot pants and graphic-print maxi dresses to wide lapels and jumpsuits.

This year's 'Groovy 70's' theme gives us a playful way to recognize an important moment in California wine history while bringing people together for an unforgettable evening on Lincoln Avenue.”

Eric Reichert, President/CEO of Visit Calistoga

Tickets are now on sale at visitcalistoga.com/events-calendar/harvest-table. Individual tickets are $175, while reserved tables for eight are $1,680.

Participating restaurants include Calistoga Inn, Eight North, House of Better, Hydro Grill, The L.A.B.—Home of Local Q 707, Lovina, PicoBar with Solbar, Robert's Tropical Table with MJ Heritage Farms, and Truss. Each restaurant will present its own multi-course menu, with vegetarian options available. Guests select their restaurant and meal option when purchasing tickets.

"Harvest Table is a celebration of everything that makes Calistoga special—our restaurants, wineries, hospitality community and welcoming small-town spirit," said Eric Reichert, President/CEO of Visit Calistoga and the Calistoga Chamber of Commerce. "This year's theme gives us a playful way to recognize an important moment in California wine history while bringing people together for an unforgettable evening on Lincoln Avenue."

DJ begins at 4:00 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:00 p.m. Guests purchasing individual tickets are encouraged to arrive early because seating is open and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Individual ticket holders are not guaranteed seats with others in their party.

Reserved table packages include eight tickets, a welcome bottle of bubbles, a reserved table displaying the group's name and additional VIP benefits. Ticket prices include service and gratuity, event rentals, entertainment, staffing, security and required permitting fees. State tax is additional. Wine is not included with individual tickets but will be available for purchase from local wineries at stations throughout the event. Outside alcohol is not permitted.
