

STAUFFER Named to the 2026 Inc. 5000 for the Second Time

Recognition reflects nearly 25 years of helping organizations creatively engineer what's next through strategy, design, and engineering.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES,
August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

STAUFFER, a Los Angeles-based digital agency, today announced it has been named to the 2026 Inc. 5000, Inc. magazine's annual list of the fastest-growing private companies in America.

Ranked No. 4,637 nationally, STAUFFER also placed No. 629 in California, No. 257 in the Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim metropolitan area, and No. 410 among advertising, marketing, and public relations firms. This marks the second time the company has earned a place on the Inc. 5000.

We've built STAUFFER around the idea that organizations shouldn't have to choose between strong marketing thinking and strong technical execution.”

Chris Stauffer, CEO

STAUFFERTM

STAUFFER Digital Agency

For nearly 25 years, STAUFFER has helped organizations creatively engineer what's next. The company brings strategy, design, and engineering together to help clients modernize digital experiences, connect technologies, and solve complex business challenges. By aligning technical decisions with business goals from the start, clients move faster, reduce unnecessary complexity, and make smarter long-term investments.

"I'm proud of this recognition because it represents years of trust from our clients and dedication from our team," said Chris Stauffer, CEO of STAUFFER. "We've built STAUFFER around the idea that organizations shouldn't have to choose between strong marketing thinking and strong technical execution. When those come together, better decisions get made and better results follow."

Today, STAUFFER partners with organizations across higher education, financial services, entertainment, healthcare, nonprofit, and other industries, providing strategy, user experience, web engineering, application development, AI consulting, and long-term digital support. Whether leading an initiative from discovery through launch or working alongside an internal team, the company's focus remains on helping organizations move forward with confidence.

The Inc. 5000 recognizes the fastest-growing privately held companies in the United States based on percentage revenue growth over a three-year period. The annual list celebrates companies that are driving innovation, creating jobs, and strengthening the American economy.
