

PB5star Takes Pickleball on the Road with Coast-to-Coast Summer Tour

This August, the PB5star Van Travels from Palm Beach to Los Angeles, Meeting the Players and Communities That Make the Game

PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PB5star, the performance-driven footwear and apparel brand created for court sports, is hitting the road this August for a coast-to-coast pickleball tour. The PB5star van will drive from Palm Beach, Florida, to Los Angeles, California, meeting players and visiting the courts and communities they love along the way.

For a few weeks, the van will wind its way across the country, stopping at courts, clubs, and local hangouts to connect with the people who make pickleball what it is. The route isn't set in stone. The team is ready to detour for a good story and a great game, and they're inviting players everywhere to help shape where the van heads next.

Wherever the van stops, PB5star will have court shoes on board, sizes to try on the spot, and a few surprises to give away for anyone who catches up with the team on the road.

The crew is also on the hunt for the country's best independent coffee. Cappuccinos, matcha, and excellent roadside stops are all fair game—recommendations strongly encouraged.

"Pickleball is really about community, and the best way to understand a community is to show up and play," said Chris Gallagher, Founder & CEO of PB5star. "We wanted to get out from behind the design table and onto the courts where this sport actually lives to meet the players, hear their stories, and find the coffee shops and characters that make each stop unforgettable."

Players who want the van to visit their community can reach out directly.

Send an email to roadtrip@pb5star.com and tell us:

- Where you play
- What makes your pickleball community special
- Where we should get coffee nearby
