

Vollrath Welcomes Andrew Cronau as Corporate Chef and Product Training Manager

In his new role, Cronau will lead training initiatives that continue to elevate product education and customer experiences across the organization.

SHEBOYGAN, WI, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Vollrath Company is pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Cronau as its new corporate chef and product training manager. In his new position, Cronau will lead product training initiatives and support Vollrath University, helping bring the company's products and capabilities to life for internal teams and culinary professionals across the country.

"Andrew's extensive industry knowledge and leadership make him an excellent addition to our team," said Christina Wegner, vice president of marketing at Vollrath. "His Vollrath product expertise, reputation for delivering engaging training, and ability to connect our solutions to real-world kitchen applications will continue to elevate our education and customer experiences across the organization."

Cronau brings years of foodservice expertise and leadership to his new role. He previously was a sales account manager at Vollrath, where he built a reputation for forging strong customer relationships and driving strategic growth. Prior to joining The Vollrath Company, he held positions in sales management, kitchen management and as a sous chef.

"I'm thrilled to continue my career journey at Vollrath and further contribute to a company with such a legacy of quality and innovation," Cronau said.

Cronau will train and support customers, dealers, distributors, and sales teams for Vollrath Foodservice and Stoelting Foodservice, both headquartered in Sheboygan.
