In her new role, Lienhard will work closely with business owners to prepare their companies for market, identify opportunities to enhance value, and navigate the transaction process with clarity and confidence. Her background in strategy, operations, and financial management complements Piedmont's relationship-driven approach to serving middle-market businesses.

"Sue brings an exceptional combination of strategic insight, operational leadership, and financial expertise," said Mike Bloom, Managing Director of Piedmont M&A Advisors. "She understands the challenges business owners face and brings the thoughtful, disciplined approach our clients value. Her expertise strengthens our ability to help clients prepare for successful transactions and achieve their long-term objectives."

Prior to joining Piedmont, Lienhard held leadership positions with Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc. and a United Airlines Regional Carrier, where she gained extensive experience in corporate operations, financial management, strategic planning, and large-scale organizational initiatives. She holds an Executive MBA from Pepperdine University and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from West Chester University of Pennsylvania.
