

Allegro Living Communities in Three States Honored by U.S. News and World Report

Communities Recognized in Independent Living, Assisted Living, and Memory Care

ST. LOUIS., MO, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Allegro Living announces that eight of its communities in three states were recognized by U.S. News and World Report's 2026 Best of Senior Living ratings. Over 3,000 independent, assisted living, and memory care communities were surveyed nationwide. Residents and family members were asked to rate their experience with the things that matter most – the kindness of staff; variety of activities; quality of the food and dining experience; whether local transportation is provided to doctor's appointments, grocery stores or other daily needs; the quality of on-site caregiving and more. The top-rated communities for each level of care were rated by U.S. News & World Report's and named "Best Senior Living" in their categories.

Congratulations to these communities on this well-deserved honor. Allegro Living sets the standard for senior living care with our residents' wellbeing at the heart of everything we do.”

Doug Schiffer, CEO of Allegro Living

“It is a true honor to be recognized by U.S. News & World Report,” said Doug Schiffer, CEO of Allegro Living. “Most importantly, the 2026 Best of Senior Living ratings are compiled using feedback from both residents and their family members. That directly demonstrates the incredible impact of our teams and the exceptional care they provide to our residents.”

Allegro Living communities recognized by U.S. News & World Report's 2026 Best of Senior Living ratings include:

Florida

- Alto Clermont in Clermont, FL: Best Assisted Living
- Allegro Fort Lauderdale in Fort Lauderdale, FL: Best Assisted Living
- Allegro Parkland in Parkland, FL: Best Independent Living
- Allegro Hyde Park in Tampa, FL: Best Independent Living and Best Assisted Living

The logo for Allegro Living features the word "Allegro" in a large, blue, serif font, with the word "LIVING" in a smaller, green, sans-serif font below it.
