

Farmingdale's Alpha Sigma Phi Wins First-Ever Grand Senior President Cup

The award recognizes the chapter's outstanding commitment to leadership, scholarship, community service, and creating a lasting impact at Farmingdale.

FARMINGDALE, NY, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Farmingdale chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi has earned its first-ever Grand Senior President's Cup, marking a historic milestone for the chapter. The national recognition honors chapters that demonstrate excellence in leadership, scholarship, brotherhood, campus involvement, and service to their communities.

"Winning the Grand Senior President's Cup is an incredible honor because it reflects the hard work, dedication, and character of every brother in our chapter. This award recognizes not one achievement but multiple, it represents our commitment to brotherhood, leadership, philanthropy, and service, and it motivates us to continue raising the standard for years to come. It's been a great pleasure to take this award home to our chapter and celebrate our accomplishments." Said current Fraternity President Justin Niveló.

A survey of all active members conducted by Vice President of Communications, Logan Goldman stated that 91 percent of members believe that winning the Grand Senior President's Cup has boosted chapter morale.

"I am honored to have been able to lead this chapter through such an impactful year. I've always had the belief that we can achieve any goal we set as an organization. This award doesn't just represent any one individual within our organization, but the culminating efforts of each of us. This award is truly a lasting memory for me and a historic point for our chapter going forward. I can't wait to see what the future holds." Said former Fraternity President Vincent Dantone
