

Depot Noord expands multilingual venue services and catering in Rotterdam

ROTTERDAM, SOUTH HOLLAND, NETHERLANDS, August 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Depot Noord, located at Willebrordusstraat 6, 3037 TR Rotterdam, has expanded its services for international guests and business clients. Alongside Dutch, the venue now offers its services in English and French, making its personal approach more accessible to Rotterdam's diverse business community.

The family run venue provides private dining, training spaces and meeting rooms for companies, organisations and private groups. Businesses searching for a Meeting Room Rotterdam can choose a professional business setting where personal service is central. Organisations looking for a Training location Rotterdam can also use flexible spaces designed for learning, collaboration, presentations and productive group sessions.

One of the venue's most requested services is Private dining Rotterdam. Guests can enjoy an exclusive dining experience in a private setting, with the menu, atmosphere and service adapted to the occasion. This option is suitable for business dinners, celebrations, team gatherings and special meetings where privacy and hospitality are important.

Depot Noord has also expanded its catering options. Clients can now choose from a broader range of catering services for meetings, training sessions, events, private dinners and other occasions. Every arrangement can be tailored to the size of the group, dietary preferences, desired atmosphere and practical requirements of the client.

Depot Noord describes itself as one of Rotterdam's most popular venues and attributes much of that popularity to being a family run company. Its owners and team are closely involved with every booking, creating short communication lines and a warm, dependable experience. At the same time, Depot Noord is a multicultural business serving companies, organisations and communities from across Rotterdam. Providing services in three languages reflects both the international character of the city and the diversity of its guests.

Owners Matijn Wijn and Juliette de Wilde are enthusiastic about the expansion.

“We are very proud to announce this. By welcoming guests in Dutch, English and French, while expanding our catering choices, we can serve even more people and businesses with the personal attention for which Depot Noord is known.”

With its combination of hospitality, flexibility and professional support, Depot Noord offers a complete setting for dining, learning and meeting. The team works closely with every client to create an experience that suits the purpose and character of each gathering.
