

Indus Travels Launches Solo Together for Solo Travelers

Solo Together offers curated journeys, private rooms and no single supplements for travelers ready to explore the world on their own terms.

VANCOUVER, CANADA, August 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New travel concept offers private rooms, zero single supplements and curated journeys around the world

Indus Travels has launched Solo Together, a new travel brand created exclusively for solo travelers who want the freedom of independent travel with the connection, convenience, and ease of an organized journey.

Built around the promise "Travel Solo. Never Alone.", Solo Together offers curated international journeys for travelers who want to explore new destinations without waiting for family or friends to join them.

"Solo travel should not mean paying more simply because you are traveling alone, nor should it mean experiencing an entire journey by yourself," said Praveen Syal, Managing Director of Indus Travels. "With Solo Together, we wanted to create a different kind of travel experience, where travelers have the freedom to explore independently, the comfort of having the important details handled, and the opportunity to build genuine connections along the way."

SOLO TOGETHER
TRAVEL SOLO. EXPERIENCE TOGETHER.

Two Ways to Experience Solo Travel
Solo Together offers two travel styles designed around different preferences and budgets.

1. Solo provides travelers with a guaranteed private room and no single supplement, along with expert local guides, cultural immersion experiences, and built-in free time to explore independently.

2. Solo Lite offers a lower-price option by pairing travelers with a same-sex roommate, while retaining the no single supplement approach.

The itineraries cover a growing range of destinations and travel styles, including Japan, India, China, Morocco, Portugal, and Spain, with journeys ranging from cultural explorations to immersive international adventures. The collection also includes European river cruise experiences, including Rhine and Danube journeys.

More Than a Tour

Solo Together is designed to balance organized travel with personal freedom. Travelers have accommodations, transfers, expert local guides, and curated experiences arranged in advance, while built-in free time gives them the flexibility to explore destinations at their own pace. Guaranteed departure dates also make it easier for travelers to plan a trip around their own schedules without coordinating with family or friends.

For travelers who are unsure where to go, the brand's "Match Me to a Tour" feature recommends an adventure based on how they prefer to travel, from city breaks and cultural journeys to coastal escapes and wilderness experiences.

The new brand is backed by 25 years of Indus Travels expertise, along with flexible booking and 24/7 support.

With Solo Together, Indus Travels is bringing a fresh approach to solo travel, giving travelers their own space while creating opportunities to share meaningful experiences, discover new cultures, and form connections along the way.
