

Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering Receives 2026 Consumer Choice Award for Bringing Alberta Barbecue to Every Celebration

CALGARY, ALBERTA, CANADA, August 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering Ltd. has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Caterers category for Southern Alberta. This recognition celebrates a company that has transformed a passion for authentic Alberta barbecue into one of the province's leading mobile catering services, serving everything from intimate family gatherings to events with more than 10,000 guests.

Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering's story began in 1999 when founder Braden Rusnack launched the business at just 17 years old while still in Grade 12. Inspired by his grandfather's smoked sausage recipe and a love for authentic barbecue, he built the company around one simple idea:

Whether we're serving a wedding, a corporate event, or a community barbecue, our goal is always the same. We want every guest to leave remembering the food, the service, and the experience.”

great food, prepared fresh on-site, creates unforgettable experiences. More than two decades later, that philosophy continues to define every event the team serves.

"Receiving the Consumer Choice Award is an incredible honour because it reflects the trust our clients place in us for some of life's biggest celebrations," said the Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering team. "Whether we're serving a wedding, a corporate event, or a community barbecue, our goal is always the same. We want every guest to leave remembering the food, the service, and the experience."

Unlike traditional catering operations, Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering brings the kitchen directly to the event. Its fully self-contained mobile barbecue units allow the team to prepare fresh Alberta beef, pork, chicken, and signature smoked specialties on-site, delivering the flavour and quality that can only come from barbecue served straight from the grill. This self-sufficient setup also gives clients the flexibility to host events almost anywhere, without placing additional demands on the venue.

Today, Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering serves weddings, corporate functions, festivals, fundraisers, backyard celebrations, and large community events across Alberta. Known for exceptional service and seamless execution, the company has earned a reputation for making hosting easy by managing every detail, allowing clients to spend more time with their guests and less time worrying about logistics.

From intimate family gatherings to events serving thousands of guests, Rocky Mountain BBQ Catering has spent more than two decades helping Albertans celebrate life's biggest moments. Receiving the Consumer Choice Award marks another milestone for a company that continues to bring people together, one barbecue at a time.
