Assault Lawyers announce that a sexual assault lawsuit has been filed in Genesee County Circuit Court, Case No. 26-64686-NO, on behalf of plaintiff, Jane Doe, against Dr. Oumair Aejaaz, Henry Ford Health Genesys Hospital, and Ascension Genesys Hospital.

Hospitals have a duty to the communities they serve to do everything necessary to ensure that the people coming to them for care are protected and safe from assault.”

Timothy A. Holland, Michigan Sexual Assault Lead Attorney

On May 9, 2024, Jane Doe was admitted to the emergency department at Genesys Hospital after going into Diabetic ketoacidosis. She was in and out of consciousness. During that time, the lawsuit alleges Dr. Aejaaz, an internist who practiced at the hospital, sexually assaulted Jane Doe multiple times and recorded the assaults.

At the time, Jane Doe had no awareness that Dr. Aejaaz had sexually assaulted her multiple times.

Jane Doe did not learn of Dr. Aejaaz’s attacks until nearly two years later when the Oakland County Sheriff’s Department showed her video footage and photographs that had reportedly been recovered from Dr. Aejaaz’s home.

“Hospitals must keep their patients safe,” said Michigan Sexual Assault Lawyers lead attorney Timothy A. Holland. “Hospitals have a duty to the communities they serve to do everything necessary to ensure that the people coming to them for care are protected and safe from

“We believe the evidence will show that Genesys Hospital failed to protect Jane Doe from Dr. Oumair Aejaaz,” said attorney Laura Skenderas of Michigan Sexual Assault Lawyers. “Our goal with this lawsuit is to hold all responsible parties accountable for the sexual assault against Jane Doe.”

Dr. Oumair Aejaaz is a medical doctor known as an internist, meaning he specializes in internal medicine.

After his wife discovered in August 2024 that Dr. Aejaaz had been secretly recording individuals at the hospitals where he practiced medicine as well as in his home, she contacted law enforcement. They obtained a search warrant for Dr. Aejaaz’s home from which they recovered six computers, four cell phones and 15 hard drives. News reports indicated that one hard drive contained approximately 13,000 videos that Dr. Aejaaz had allegedly recorded over the last 6 years.

The video recordings reportedly included videos of Dr. Aejaaz allegedly sexually assaulting women lying unconscious in hospital beds.

In December 2025, after having pled no contest to all charges, Dr. Aejaaz was convicted of 31 counts of sexual misconduct – including 5 counts of criminal sexual conduct - in Oakland County and sentenced to 35-60 years in prison.
