

Brilliant Environmental Services Celebrates 20 Years, as Founder Philip Brilliant Named Citizen of the Year

The Toms River environmental consulting firm unveils a redesigned website while celebrating a year of growth, leadership, and community recognition.

TOMS RIVER, NJ, UNITED STATES, August 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brilliant Environmental Services, LLC is celebrating a milestone year in 2026 with its 20th anniversary, the launch of a redesigned website at <https://brilliantenvironmental.com>, and the announcement that founder and owner Philip I. Brilliant, CHMM, LSRP, has been named the 2026 Citizen of the Year by the Greater Toms River Chamber of Commerce.

Phil Brilliant, Owner Brilliant Environmental Services, LLC

Founded in 2006, Brilliant Environmental Services provides environmental consulting and remediation services to homeowners, businesses, developers, municipalities, attorneys, institutions, and other clients throughout New Jersey.

"This anniversary is really about the people who helped build Brilliant," said Phil Brilliant. "Our clients, employees, colleagues, and community partners have all played a role in getting us here. Being named Citizen of the Year during our 20th anniversary makes this an especially meaningful year."

The Greater Toms River Chamber of Commerce will recognize Brilliant at its Annual Awards on November 5, 2026, at Argos Farm in Forked River. The honor recognizes his longstanding commitment to the community through local business organizations, nonprofit service, and professional education. In addition to leading Brilliant Environmental Services, Phil is the co-founder and CFO of Continuing Professional Education Services (CPES), a New Jersey nonprofit that provides continuing education and professional development programs for environmental professionals and other licensed practitioners. He has also been nominated for Best Boss in the

As part of its 20th anniversary, Brilliant Environmental Services has launched a new website designed to make it easier for clients to understand environmental issues, explore services, review completed projects, and access educational resources. The site also features the Simply Brilliant podcast and radio show, where Phil shares commentary on local business, community issues, environmental topics, nonprofits, and public policy affecting Ocean County and communities across New Jersey.

Brilliant Environmental Services provides a full range of environmental consulting and remediation services, including:

- Licensed Site Remediation Professional (LSRP) services
- Environmental investigations
- Brownfield redevelopment
- Underground storage tank consulting and remediation
- Real estate due diligence
- Environmental litigation support
- Child Care Center environmental licensing
- Multi-Phase Recovery (MPR) / High Vacuum Extraction

The company's anniversary was recently celebrated with clients, employees, vendors, friends, and family at JBJ Soul Kitchen in Toms River, a venue selected to reflect Phil's longstanding commitment to supporting organizations that strengthen the local community.

"As we celebrate this milestone, we're focused on continuing to educate our clients, support our communities, and help property owners solve environmental challenges with practical solutions," said Brilliant.
