

LAKE COUNTY COMMUNITY TO RALLY AROUND SURVIVOR HANNAH WRIGHT AND HER 8-YEAR-OLD SON AT AUGUST 16 FUNDRAISER

Northern California victim advocates and community invited to support Hannah Wright and amplify her story at community fundraiser to be held on August 16, 2026

LAKEPORT, CA, UNITED STATES, August 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Friends, neighbors,

Hannah is one of the strongest, most loving people I know. She survived the unimaginable. Now it's our turn to stand beside her and her son as they heal, rebuild and find their way forward.”

Hannah's*

advocates and members of the Lake County community will come together on Sunday, August 16 at 10:00 a.m. at 1801 N. High Street in Lakeport for a fundraising event supporting Hannah Wright and her 8-year-old son as they begin the difficult process of rebuilding their lives following a devastating act of violence.

Hannah survived.

She is a mother, a longtime member of the Lake County community and a local real estate professional who has worked in the region for more than a decade. Her life and the life of her young son were profoundly changed by a violent incident involving her husband. Now her community is coming together around them.

The August 16 gathering is intended first and foremost to provide Hannah and her son with practical, financial and emotional support during an extraordinarily difficult period. But organizers also hope Hannah's story can help shine a light on the broader impact of domestic and interpersonal violence and the enormous challenges survivors and their children face after the immediate crisis has passed.

Domestic violence can occur behind closed doors and across every social and economic boundary. Survivors may face not only physical and emotional trauma, but also sudden financial insecurity, housing concerns, disruption to their careers and families, and the daunting task of rebuilding a sense of safety and normalcy for their children. Hannah's supporters want her to know that she does not have to make that journey alone.

VICTIM-ADVOCACY ORGANIZATIONS INVITED TO STAND WITH HANNAH: Organizers are reaching out to domestic-violence organizations, crime-victim advocates, community organizations, civic leaders and members of the real estate community throughout Northern California and beyond.

Organizations within traveling distance of Lakeport are warmly invited to send a representative to attend Sunday's gathering and stand in solidarity with Hannah and other survivors of violence. Organizations unable to attend are being asked to share Hannah's story and information about the August 16 fundraiser through their newsletters, email lists, websites and social-media communities. The goal is not simply to help one family through an extraordinary crisis, but also to demonstrate what is possible when communities and organizations come together around survivors.

A vibrant fundraising poster for Hannah Wright. At the top, the word "FUNDRAISER" is in large, bold, red letters, followed by "for Hannah Wright" in a cursive font. Below this, it says "HOSTED BY" and lists three youth football teams: Westshore Cardinals, Northshore Cougars, and Kelseyville Chiefs, each with their respective logos. To the right, a woman is shown holding a child, with a quote: "We may have different jerseys, but we're all on the SAME TEAM. WE'RE ALL FAMILY." The center of the poster features the text "COMMUNITY SUPPORTING COMMUNITY" with a heart symbol, followed by "Because around here... WE TAKE CARE OF OUR OWN." and "CAR WASH!" in large, bubbly letters. Below this, it says "COME OUT, GET YOUR RIDE CLEAN, AND SUPPORT HANNAH!". The date and time are prominently displayed: "AUGUST 16TH 10 AM". At the bottom, it lists food and beverage vendors: Mamma's Philly Chz, Lakeside Lemonade, and Momma Mals, along with a note about other donated items. The bottom section states "ALL PROCEEDS WILL GO TO HANNAH" and provides contact information: "JOIN US for a day of food, community, and giving back to someone who means so much to so many." and "1801 NORTH HIGH STREET LAKEPORT". It also includes a "TOGETHER" message: "we can make a difference. Thank you for standing with Hannah and her family." and the tagline "ONE COMMUNITY. ONE FAMILY. ONE PURPOSE." at the very bottom.
