

SCAILIUM Resumes Operations Following Successful Exit from Insolvency

Core team rehired as the company resumes customer, product and commercial activity.

TEL AVIV-YAFO, CENTER DISTRICT, ISRAEL, August 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SCAILIUM has successfully emerged from insolvency and resumed business operations.

The company has rehired its core team, resumed serving existing customers, and restarted product development and commercial activity.

SCAILIUM is also engaging with new global enterprise customers as it continues to advance its GPU-accelerated data processing technology.

The company is now focused on its next phase, building on its technology, customer base and experience in large-scale GPU data processing.

About SCAILIUM

SCAILIUM develops GPU-accelerated data processing technology for large-scale and compute-intensive data workloads.
