Gordon McKernan

invites Louisiana residents of all ages to put their creativity on display in its fourth annual Billboard Design Competition. Participants can compete for cash prizes, support a charity of their choice and have their artwork featured on an official billboard.

The competition opens Monday, Aug. 17, and closes on Sunday, Sept. 20, at 11:59 p.m. Participants can register and submit their designs at getgordon.com/billboards.

"We started this competition as a way to give people across Louisiana a chance to have some fun and share their creativity," said Gordon McKernan, founder of Gordon McKernan Injury Attorneys. "Every year, we see so many unique designs from talented people across the state. It's exciting to see what they create."

After submissions close, Gordon McKernan Injury Attorneys will select three finalists in the adult category. The public will then vote to determine the first-, second- and third-place winners. The firm also will select up to three winners in the child category.

Adult winners will receive gift cards ranging from $1,000 to $250. The firm also will match each adult winner's prize with a donation to a charity chosen by the winner, subject to approval. Each child winner will receive a $250 gift card. Winning artwork from both categories may appear on official Gordon McKernan billboards, subject to firm and compliance approvals.

The Billboard Design Competition is open to Louisiana residents of all ages and does not require professional design experience. For more information, contest rules or to submit an entry, visit getgordon.com/billboards.
