

Trinity Safety & Training Receives 2026 Consumer Choice Award for Setting the Standard in Workplace Safety Training

SASKATOON, SASKATCHEWAN,
CANADA, August 17, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Trinity Safety & Training has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Health & Safety Training category for Saskatoon. This marks the company's ninth Consumer Choice Award, recognizing nearly two decades of excellence in delivering industry-leading safety education and helping build safer workplaces across Saskatchewan and Canada.

Since opening its doors on October 1, 2006, Trinity Safety & Training has trained more than 75,000 workers, equipping individuals and organizations with the knowledge and practical skills needed to work safely and confidently. Serving industries including construction, mining, oil and gas, transportation, and manufacturing, the company has become a trusted training partner for employers who prioritize workplace safety and regulatory compliance.

"Receiving our ninth Consumer Choice Award is an incredible honour because it reflects the trust our clients have placed in us over the past two decades," said Dave Chalmers, Owner and President of Trinity Safety & Training. "Every person who walks through our doors is counting on us to provide training that prepares them to work safely and confidently. That's a responsibility we take seriously, and we're proud to continue helping build stronger safety cultures across Saskatchewan and beyond."

Trinity Safety & Training's approach extends beyond delivering mandatory certifications. The company invests in experienced instructors who bring real-world industry knowledge into the classroom, ensuring every course is practical, engaging, and current with evolving safety standards. Combined with modern, comfortable training facilities, this commitment creates an environment where participants can focus on learning and leave prepared to apply their knowledge on the job.

Over the past 20 years, Trinity Safety & Training has built lasting relationships with businesses of all sizes by consistently delivering reliable instruction and outstanding customer service. Whether training individual workers or coordinating large-scale corporate programs, the team is dedicated to helping organizations strengthen their safety culture and protect their most valuable asset: their people.

Receiving the Consumer Choice Award for the ninth time marks another milestone for Trinity Safety & Training as it continues to raise the standard for workplace health and safety education across Saskatchewan and beyond.
