

Oakville Toyota Receives 2026 Consumer Choice Award for Delivering an Ownership Experience That Goes Beyond the Sale

OAKVILLE, ONTARIO, CANADA, August 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Oakville Toyota has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Automobile Dealer – Toyota category for the Greater Toronto Area. This recognition celebrates a dealership that has spent more than five decades helping drivers buy, lease, and service their vehicles while delivering an experience built on trust, convenience, and long-term customer care.

Since opening its doors in 1974, Oakville Toyota has grown alongside the community it serves by focusing on more than just selling vehicles. Whether customers are purchasing a new Toyota, exploring quality pre-owned options, or returning for routine maintenance, the dealership is committed to making every visit welcoming, informative, and hassle-free. Backed by Toyota Certified Technicians and an experienced sales and service team, Oakville Toyota supports customers throughout every stage of vehicle ownership.

We strive to make every interaction a positive one by providing knowledgeable guidance, transparent service, and ongoing support that extends well beyond the day a customer drives off the lot.”

Oakville Toyota Team

"Receiving the Consumer Choice Award is an incredible honour because it reflects the trust our customers have placed in us for more than 50 years," said the Oakville Toyota team. "We strive to make every interaction a positive one by providing knowledgeable guidance, transparent service, and ongoing support that extends well beyond the day a customer drives off the lot."

As a proud member of The Humberview Group, Oakville Toyota combines the personalized service of a local dealership with the resources of one of Canada's leading automotive groups. Customers benefit from access to thousands of new and pre-owned vehicles across multiple brands, no-pressure consultations, transparent pricing, convenient at-home test drives, and modern service tools such as digital vehicle inspection reports that keep them informed every step of the way. The dealership is also part of The Humberview Group, which was recognized as one of Canada's Best Managed Companies for the third consecutive year in 2026.

OAKVILLE TOYOTA

Oakville Toyota's commitment to customer satisfaction has also earned the dealership Toyota's Circle of Excellence Award, recognizing outstanding performance in customer care, finance and insurance services, and leasing and financing support. Together, these achievements reflect a team dedicated to helping customers feel confident throughout the ownership journey.

For more than 50 years, Oakville Toyota has continued to build lasting relationships by putting customers first. Receiving the Consumer Choice Award marks another milestone for a dealership that remains committed to serving the GTA with exceptional vehicles, trusted advice, and an ownership experience designed to last long after the keys are handed over.
