LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Producers Right Angle Entertainment and Maple Tree Entertainment today announced Creedence Clearwater Reimagined (creedencereimagined.com) an all-new live concert tribute experience honoring one of the most influential American rock bands of all time. From the Producers of The Simon & Garfunkel Story, The Life and Music of George Michael, and The Billy Joel Legacy: A Tribute Experience, the national tour will launch in spring 2027 and visit scores of cities around the country. The show will bring audiences an unforgettable evening celebrating the music that became the soundtrack of American rock.

We wanted to create a show that captures not only the energy of the music, but also why Creedence Clearwater Revival continues to mean so much to so many people around the world.”

Dean Elliott from Maple Tree Entertainment

Few bands have left a mark on American music quite like Creedence Clearwater Revival. CCR released an extraordinary run of hit songs over four remarkable years that continue to echo through generations. From classic rock radio and blockbuster films to road trips and backyard barbecues, Creedence Clearwater Reimagined brings that remarkable catalog to life through faithful live performances and cinematic multimedia, celebrating one of rock's most enduring and influential bands.

“For decades, Creedence Clearwater Revival songs have been passed from parents to children, discovered in movies, heard on road trips, and shared at parties and gatherings, not to mention a karaoke session or two,” says creator and director Dean Elliott from Maple Tree Entertainment. “We wanted to create a show that captures not only the energy of the music, but also why Creedence Clearwater Revival continues to mean so much to so many people around the world."

From the opening notes of "Proud Mary" to unforgettable classics like "Bad Moon Rising," "Fortunate Son," "Green River," "Have You Ever Seen the Rain," "Born on the Bayou," "Down on the Corner," and "Travelin' Band," audiences will experience one iconic song after another performed with remarkable authenticity. The production will transport audiences back to one of the most influential periods in American rock history.

More than half a century after first climbing the charts, Creedence Clearwater Revival's music remains as relevant as ever. With more than 100 million records sold worldwide, their songs continue to inspire new artists, soundtrack films and television, fill concert venues, and unite generations through one of the most celebrated catalogs in rock history.
