

Aventis Unveils Future-Ready Leadership Series to Bridge AI Governance, Creative Innovation, and Organisational Agility

Enhanced masterclasses equip senior leaders across the public and corporate sectors to govern emerging technologies and lead teams through complex change.

SINGAPORE, August 17, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Aventis Learning Group today announced the launch of its Future-Ready Leadership Series, an integrated suite of executive programmes bringing together three essential pillars of modern governance: AI Ethics & Governance, Creative Leadership, and Agile & Change Leadership.

Navigating AI adoption and organisational change is not merely a technical challenge, it is fundamentally a leadership responsibility.”

Irene Oh, Director of Aventis Learning Group

Built around the theme “Lead the Future. Drive Innovation. Navigate Change.”, the series responds to rapid technological disruption and shifting organisational demands. As public agencies and enterprises adopt artificial intelligence and automated systems, leaders face unprecedented challenges—balancing digital transformation with ethical compliance, fostering innovative thinking, and steering multi-disciplinary teams through ongoing structural change.

The series is curated for Directors, Deputy Directors, Heads of Department (HODs), and Senior Officers across government ministries, statutory boards, public-sector agencies, and multinational corporations seeking to build future-ready capabilities.

Three Pillars. Three Transformation Challenges.

Rather than addressing technology or leadership in isolation, the Aventis series tackles the complete lifecycle of organisational transformation:

- Professional Certificate in Artificial Intelligence Ethics & Governance in Action: Establishes robust ethical frameworks, risk governance, and regulatory compliance for deploying AI and automated systems within public and corporate entities.

- Creative Leadership - Strategies to Innovate, Influence and Inspire Others: Explores creative problem-solving, cross-divisional innovation, and inspiring high-performance teams to think beyond legacy constraints.
- Agile & Change Leadership - From Resistance to Acceptance: Equips leaders with practical change frameworks to manage stakeholder resistance, align inter-agency priorities, and drive smooth organisational transitions.

Governance and Innovation for a Changing Landscape

Today's executives must lead in high-stakes environments where technological acceleration outpaces traditional policy and management playbooks. Leaders must establish responsible governance without stifling innovation, while ensuring their workforce adapts to fast-changing operational demands.

"Navigating AI adoption and organisational change is not merely a technical challenge, it is fundamentally a leadership responsibility," said Ms. Irene Oh, Director of Aventis Learning Group. "Our Future-Ready Leadership Series provides leaders with actionable frameworks to govern emerging technologies ethically, drive creative problem-solving, and build resilient, change-agile organisations."

Supporting Leaders Across the Public and Private Sectors

The series forms a core pillar within Aventis Learning Group's executive portfolio, complementing its strategic leadership offerings. Programmes in the series include Professional Certificate in Artificial Intelligence Ethics & Governance in Action, Creative Leadership: Strategies to Innovate, Influence and Inspire Others, and Agile & Change Leadership: From Resistance to Acceptance.
