

E&K AND BRADY WEST JOIN DCAC USA 2026 AS PLATINUM SPONSORS

Leading specialty contractor reinforces its commitment to the data center industry as DCAC returns to Austin this August

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- E&K, together with Brady West and their combined mission critical division, is proud to announce its role as a Platinum Sponsor of the 2026 Data

Center Anti-Conference (DCAC) USA, taking place August 24–26, 2026, at ACL Live at The Moody Theater in Austin, Texas. The sponsorship underscores the company's continued investment in advancing the rapidly evolving digital infrastructure industry and supporting the collaborative community driving its future.

E&K and Brady West represent the type of industry leadership that is essential as digital infrastructure continues to evolve and expand.”

David Isaac, President, DCAC-Live

Known for delivering high-performance interior systems and mission-critical construction solutions, E&K and Brady West partner with project owners, developers and general contractors to deliver complex projects with precision, speed and uncompromising quality. As demand for AI, cloud computing and hyperscale infrastructure continues to accelerate, the companies remain focused on helping customers build resilient environments that support the next generation of digital infrastructure.

The Data Center Anti-Conference (DCAC) has become one of the industry's most distinctive events, bringing together operators, developers, contractors, investors and technology leaders for authentic conversations, relationship-building and practical collaboration. Unlike traditional conferences, DCAC is built around community-first engagement, creating opportunities for meaningful discussions that help shape the future of the mission critical industry.

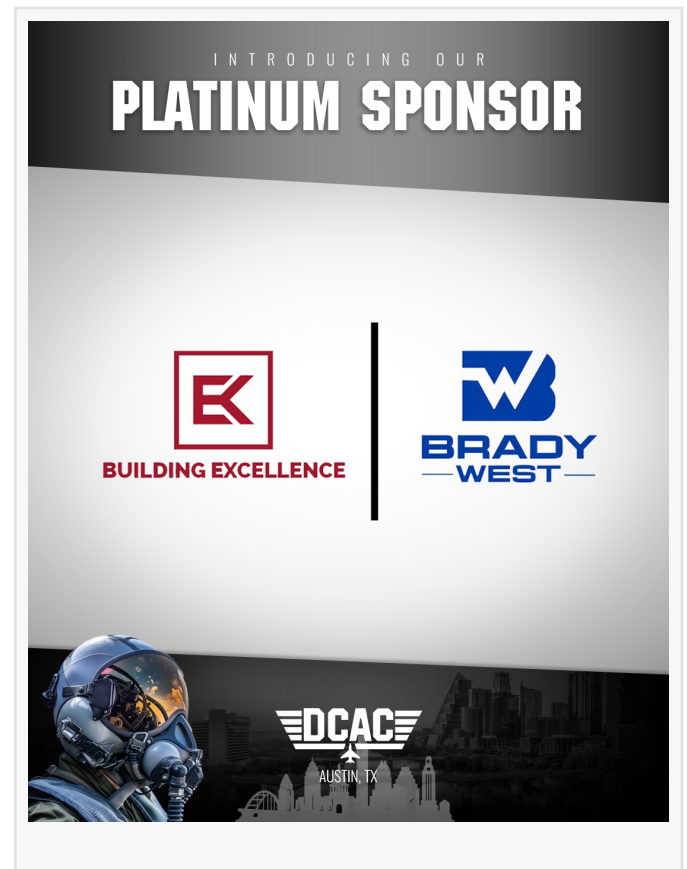

"The data center industry has always been built on strong partnerships, and that's exactly what makes DCAC such a valuable event," said Brian Heintz, President of E&K of Kansas City. "The conversations that happen here extend well beyond the conference itself. They create lasting relationships, spark new ideas and move our industry forward. We're proud to support an event that brings together the people building the future of digital infrastructure and look forward to connecting with customers, partners and peers in Austin."

E&K and Brady West are proud to support DCAC USA 2026 as Platinum Sponsors. As leaders in delivering mission-critical interiors, the companies are committed to excellence and look forward to partnering with DCAC-Live to help foster one of the industry's most collaborative and community-driven events.

David Isaac, President of DCAC-Live, said E&K and Brady West represent the type of industry leadership that is essential as digital infrastructure continues to evolve and expand.

"As our industry works to forge what we call the Fifth Utility, it takes experienced partners like E&K and Brady across every discipline to turn vision into reality."

The 2026 edition of DCAC USA, themed "Operation: Full Throttle - Forging the 5th Utility," will explore the convergence of artificial intelligence, power, workforce development and digital infrastructure through candid discussions, immersive experiences and unmatched networking opportunities.

Attendees can connect with E&K and Brady West throughout the event to learn more about the companies' mission-critical capabilities and their approach to delivering high-performance interior solutions for today's most demanding data center environments. Visit them on the Music Porch!
