

Shugarman's Bath Helps Set Up a Foster Family's Vacation Home with Destination Memories

The partnership supports Destination Memories' work with the Ticket to Dream Foundation, a national foster care nonprofit.

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, August 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Shugarman's Bath has partnered with Destination Memories to help prepare a vacation home for a local foster family. Destination Memories is the giving arm of Destination Motivation, a company that has spent more than a decade showing how travel can change people's lives. Shugarman's Bath already works with Destination Motivation through its Vacation Voucher program, which gives customers a vacation voucher to enjoy after completing a remodel. Destination Memories works with the Ticket to Dream Foundation, a 501(c)3 nonprofit that has helped more than 5 million children in foster care nationwide.

Foster families give up a lot of time to care for the children who need them most. They're balancing court dates, dealing with sleepless nights, and working in an already difficult foster system. Their schedules leave little time or budget to enjoy a deserved vacation.

Destination Memories gives these families the vacation they would otherwise struggle to afford. Ticket to Dream nominates foster families in a region, and Destination Memories picks one to receive that trip.

Shugarman's Bath helped prepare the vacation home for a local foster family. The company built personalized gift baskets for the children and helped Destination Memories set up and stock the family's home for their arrival. The company will not share details about the specific family involved to protect their privacy.

"Showing up for people in our community is important to us," said Chase Shugarman, President of Shugarman's Bath. "Putting the gift baskets together and helping get their vacation home ready was our way of welcoming a family that deserves some fun and relaxation."

Businesses interested in co-sponsoring a family trip in their own region can reach out to Destination Memories directly. Homeowners considering a tub or shower remodel can schedule a free design consultation with Shugarman's Bath to get started.
