

Saskatoon Funeral Home Earns 17th Consumer Choice Award for Compassionate Funeral Services

SASKATOON, SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Saskatoon Funeral Home has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Funeral Services category. This marks the funeral home's 17th Consumer Choice Award, recognizing its unwavering commitment to compassionate care, personalized service, and supporting families through life's most difficult moments.

As Saskatoon's only locally owned funeral service provider, the Edwards Family has proudly served generations of families with professionalism, dignity, and respect. Conveniently located in downtown Saskatoon, Saskatoon Funeral Home provides comprehensive funeral and memorial services tailored to the unique wishes, beliefs, and traditions of every family it serves.

Being locally owned allows us to provide personal, compassionate care when families need it most, and we remain committed to serving our community with dignity, respect, and professionalism.”

Saskatoon Funeral Home

“Receiving our 17th Consumer Choice Award is an incredible honour and a reflection of the trust families have placed in us over the years,” said the Edwards Family of Saskatoon Funeral Home. “Being locally owned allows us to provide personal, compassionate care when families need it most, and we remain committed to serving our community with dignity, respect, and professionalism.”

What sets Saskatoon Funeral Home apart is its commitment to being available whenever families need support. The funeral home is the only facility in Saskatoon with a staff member on-site 24 hours a day, ensuring the building is never left unattended and assistance is always available during times of need.

In addition to traditional and contemporary funeral services, Saskatoon Funeral Home offers pre-planning, memorial services, and assistance with complex situations, including deaths occurring outside of Canada. The experienced team works closely with each family to provide thoughtful guidance and personalized arrangements that honour every life with care and compassion.
