

Wilson's Garden Center Wins 2026 Consumer Choice Award in Columbus

COLUMBUS, OH, UNITED STATES, August 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Consumer Choice Award is proud to announce that Wilson's Garden Center has been named the 2026 Consumer Choice Award winner in the Garden Centers category for Columbus. This recognition reflects the company's long-standing reputation for quality products, community trust, and exceptional customer service.

Originally founded in 1958 by Carl and Helen Wilson as a small, family-owned farm market, Wilson's Garden Center began by growing and selling fresh produce such as tomatoes, melons, and sweet corn to local residents and businesses. What started as a modest operation has grown over the past six decades into a well-established garden center serving the Central Ohio community.

Winning the Consumer Choice Award is a meaningful recognition of our history and the continued support from our community.”

Wilson's Garden Center Team

Today, Wilson's Garden Center offers a wide selection of flowers, plants, and gardening essentials, helping customers bring their outdoor spaces to life. The company has remained true to its roots, maintaining a strong commitment to quality and a customer-first approach that has been passed down through generations.

“We are proud of how far we've come while staying true to the values we were founded on,” said the Wilson's Garden

Center team. “Winning the Consumer Choice Award is a meaningful recognition of our history and the continued support from our community.”

With decades of experience, Wilson's Garden Center has become a trusted destination for both seasoned gardeners and those just beginning their journey. The team provides knowledgeable guidance and carefully selected products to help customers achieve successful, beautiful results in their gardens and outdoor spaces.

As interest in gardening and outdoor living continues to grow, particularly as more homeowners look to enhance their spaces, Wilson's Garden Center remains committed to offering high-quality plants and personalized service that meets the evolving needs of its customers.

The Consumer Choice Award is based on independent market research evaluating reputation, customer satisfaction, and overall excellence. Wilson's Garden Center's selection as the 2026 winner highlights its legacy of excellence and its ongoing contribution to the Columbus community.
