“At GreenWorks, our goal is to provide every client with the knowledge and confidence they need to make informed property decisions,” said the GreenWorks Service Company team. “This recognition reflects the dedication of our team and our commitment to delivering exceptional service every day.”

What sets GreenWorks apart is its comprehensive approach to property evaluation. Beyond home inspections, the company offers engineering and environmental services, providing clients with a complete understanding of a property's condition while delivering practical solutions for identified deficiencies.

Available seven days a week, GreenWorks combines detailed reporting with responsive customer service to meet the needs of buyers, sellers, property owners, investors, and real estate professionals. Its focus on accuracy, transparency, and timely communication has earned the company a reputation as a trusted partner throughout the property transaction process.

By pairing technical expertise with personalized service, GreenWorks continues to help clients make confident decisions about one of their most important investments. Its commitment to quality assessments and client care remains central to everything the company does.

The Consumer Choice Award is based on independent market research evaluating reputation, customer satisfaction, and overall excellence. GreenWorks Service Company's selection as the 2026 winner highlights its continued leadership in home inspection and property consulting services.
