

HR for Health Collaborates with AADOM to Expand HR Compliance Education and Resources for Dental Practice Leaders

Alliance Gives AADOM Members Access to Trusted HR Guidance, Educational Resources, and Live HR Compliance Training

WALNUT CREEK, CA, UNITED STATES, August 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HR for Health, the leading HR compliance and payroll platform designed specifically for healthcare and dental practices, has announced a new agreement with the American Association of Dental Office Management \(AADOM\). Through the collaboration, HR for Health will provide AADOM members with trusted HR compliance guidance, educational resources, and specialized training to help dental practices confidently navigate today's evolving employment landscape.

As part of the partnership, AADOM members will gain free access to HR for Health's library of compliance resources, best practices, and employment law education tailored specifically for dental practices. Members will also benefit from expert insights on topics including hiring, employee documentation, wage and hour compliance, employee handbooks, workplace policies, and day-to-day HR management.

HR for Health will also present a live module as part of AADOM's HR Certificate Program, providing dental office managers with practical strategies to reduce compliance risk, strengthen workplace processes, and build confident, compliant teams.

"Office managers are at the heart of keeping dental practices running successfully," said Jill Hasselmann, Chief Growth Officer of HR for Health. "We're excited to partner with AADOM to provide members with practical HR guidance, readily available resources, and education that helps them make informed decisions and create stronger teams."

"Our members value education they can immediately put into practice," said Chavelle Galton-
