

INDISTRY MEDIA MAKES ITS OFFICIAL DEBUT IN PROFESSIONAL BOXING WITH SEPTEMBER 26 LAS VEGAS EVENT

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, August 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago-based entertainment company Indistry Media today officially announced its entry into professional boxing with its inaugural event, set for Saturday, September 26 in Las Vegas, NV.

"We're excited to officially introduce Indistry Media to the boxing community in the boxing capital of the world - Las Vegas," said Erroll Angara, COO of Indistry Media. "While this marks our first boxing event, it builds upon more than a decade of producing premium live entertainment experiences. We've assembled an exceptional team with world-class boxing expertise, and our vision is to create marquee events that showcase the sport's elite athletes and the stories that make boxing so compelling."

"We've been quietly building toward this moment for more than a year," Angara continued. "This event is only the beginning. In the coming months, we will introduce a dedicated sports division that reflects our long-term commitment to—and investment in—the future of boxing. We believe there's an opportunity to bring a fresh perspective to the sport—one that celebrates its rich tradition while embracing new ideas that deepen the connection between fighters and fans. I believe the boxing community will be excited by what we're building."

The September 26 card will feature an exciting lineup of world-class bouts, topped by a major headline fight that will be announced in the coming days. Serving as the evening's co-main event will be an explosive Mexico vs. Puerto Rico welterweight 10-round clash, as two-time former world title challenger Jose 'Chon' Zepeda, (38-5, 29 KOs), of La Puente, CA faces former world champion Alberto 'El Explosivo' Machado, (25-4, 21 KOs), of San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Consistent with Indistry Media's vision of showcasing the best talent in boxing, the September 26 undercard will also feature the Valle Sisters in scheduled ten round bouts -- former unified world champion Yokasta Valle, (34-4, 10 KOs) and Noamy Valle, (15-1, 9 KOs), both of San Jose, Costa Rica.

Additionally fighting on the undercard will be top, undefeated bantamweight prospect Anthony Garnica, (14-0-1, 8 KOs), of Oakland, CA and fast-rising, undefeated lightweight prospect Nathan 'El Morenito' Rodriguez, (20-0, 13 KOs), of Pico Rivera, CA. Garnica and Rodriguez will both be fighting in ten-rounders against challengers to be announced.
