

Albert Sosa Achieves Verified Agent Status on Agent Review, a Leading Verification Platform for Insurance Agents

HealthOne-Insure founder recognized for professional credibility and commitment to consumer trust.

VALRICO, FL, UNITED STATES, August 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Albert Sosa, founder and CEO of HealthOne-Insure LLC, has earned Verified Agent status on Agent Review, an independent platform that verifies the identities and professional information of insurance agents. Sosa is a licensed insurance broker and retirement-income advisor specializing in Medicare, individual and family health insurance, supplemental coverage and retirement-income solutions. Through HealthOne-Insure, he helps clients understand their options and make informed coverage decisions based on their healthcare needs, financial circumstances and personal goals.

"I am proud to earn Verified Agent status," Sosa said. "Consumers deserve to know that the insurance professional they are working with is properly identified and has independently reviewed credentials. That trust must work both ways. Agents also need confidence in the consumers, professionals and organizations they engage with. Strong verification helps create safer and more transparent relationships for everyone." Verified Agent status provides consumers with an additional level of confidence before they share sensitive health, financial or personal information. It also helps qualified agents distinguish themselves from unverified online profiles, fraudulent identities and increasingly sophisticated forms of digital impersonation. The importance of independent verification continues to grow as artificial intelligence makes it easier to create fake identities, altered photographs, cloned voices and deepfake videos. A professional-looking website, social-media profile or video call may no longer be sufficient to establish that someone is who they claim to be.

Sosa's Verified Agent status is supported by a recurring monthly third-party review designed to confirm that key professional information remains current. Agent Review also plans to provide video identity verification through Veriff and YuBi, creating an additional safeguard against deepfakes and AI-generated impersonation. Sosa founded HealthOne-Insure to make insurance easier for consumers to understand. The independent agency specializes in individual and family health coverage, Medicare products, supplemental insurance and retirement-income strategies. HealthOne-Insure offers clients clear information, side-by-side comparisons and step-by-step guidance. The agency is appointed with more than 30 insurance carriers nationwide, allowing its licensed professionals to compare multiple options based on each client's needs. The agency also provides ongoing support after enrollment, helping clients understand their coverage, review changes and address insurance-related questions as their circumstances evolve. Sosa is

About Agent Review

Agent Review is built around three core consumer principles: Education, Search and Assessment. The platform provides unbiased educational information for consumers researching insurance products, comprehensive search capabilities for finding insurance professionals and assessment tools through which consumers can rate and review their experiences. For insurance agents, the platform's central value propositions are Visibility and Credibility.
