NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 23, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bible with Life is offering personalized Scripture blessing songs for weddings and anniversaries, giving couples and guests a way to turn a wedding passage into a song written for the specific people involved.

Half the room cannot hear the reading, and nobody remembers the toast. The song survives both.”

Benny Yu, Founder of Bible with Life

The sender selects a marriage-related Bible verse, adds the couple's names, and receives a song built around that passage. Creating and sharing the song is free. It can be sent privately to the couple, played at a reception, or given again as a gift on an anniversary years later.

"Half the room cannot hear the reading, and nobody remembers the toast," said Benny Yu, founder of Bible with Life. "The song survives both. And on a tenth anniversary you can send the same passage back to them, which a card cannot do."

The wedding verse list includes passages long used in Christian ceremonies, covering covenant love, patience, and God's presence in a household. Each carries a short note on what the passage is saying, so a guest choosing a verse is not picking blind.

Weddings and anniversaries are two of eight occasions the platform supports, alongside birthdays, sympathy, healing, encouragement, graduations, and new babies. Senders who want a permanent copy can purchase an MP3 download for $1.99, which also makes the song permanently private.

Bible with Life also produces 45 animated Bible story films and 63 original worship tracks, all free to watch and stream, along with a free daily Bible verse email.

Wedding and anniversary blessing songs can be created at biblewithlife.com/send-a-song.
