26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bible with Life is offering personalized Scripture blessing songs for newborns and baby dedications, letting parents, grandparents, and godparents attach a specific Bible passage to a child's name from the beginning.

“

Choose the verse once, while you are still crying in the hospital. The child gets to grow into it.”

Benny Yu, Founder of Bible with Life

The sender chooses a verse, enters the child's name, and receives a song written around that passage. Creating and sharing the song is free, and a permanent MP3 download is available for $1.99.

The practice of choosing a passage for a newborn is long established in Christian families, and often formalized at a dedication or christening. What families rarely have is a form for that verse that outlasts the ceremony.

"Choose the verse once, while you are still crying in the hospital," said Benny Yu, founder of Bible with Life. "The child gets to grow into it. At five it is the song from their birthday. At twenty it is the passage their parents picked before they had done anything to earn it. That is roughly how blessing is supposed to work."

The new-baby verse list draws on passages about being known and formed by God before birth, and on blessings spoken over children in both testaments. Each carries a short note on what the passage says, so a grandparent choosing a verse is not left guessing.

New babies are one of eight occasions the platform supports, alongside birthdays, weddings, sympathy, healing, encouragement, graduations, and anniversaries.

Bible with Life also produces 45 animated Bible story films and 63 original worship tracks, all free, along with a free daily Bible verse email.

Blessing songs for newborns can be created at biblewithlife.com/send-a-song.
