NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bible with Life is inviting churches to use its personalized Scripture blessing songs in member care, saying the tool was built for individuals but has proved most natural in the hands of people responsible for many.

A pastor with two hundred members cannot write two hundred personal notes. This is one way to close that gap.”

Benny Yu, Founder of Bible with Life

Pastors, small-group leaders, and care teams can create a song for a member by choosing an occasion and a Bible verse and entering the member's name. The song is delivered through a private link that can be sent directly to the person or family. There is no cost to the church, no account tier, and no per-song fee.

"A pastor with two hundred members cannot write two hundred personal notes," said Benny Yu, founder of Bible with Life. "That is not neglect, it is arithmetic. This is one way to close that gap without making the thing you send feel mass-produced, because the verse and the name are still chosen by a person who knows them."

The platform supports eight occasions relevant to congregational life, including sympathy, healing, encouragement, birthdays, weddings, graduations, new babies, and anniversaries. Songs created in the sympathy, grief, healing, and comfort categories are kept private automatically and are never displayed publicly.

Bible with Life produces animated Bible story films and original worship music alongside the blessing songs. Its library includes 45 Scripture films and 63 original worship tracks across three albums, all free to watch and stream, and the platform also runs a free daily Bible verse email and a 30-day prayer challenge.

Churches can create blessing songs at biblewithlife.com/send-a-song.
