

One Month to Go Until the ELSA Dublin Life Settlement Symposium 2026

Leading life settlement professionals will gather in Dublin on 15 September for an afternoon of market insight, discussion and networking.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With just one month to go, the European Life Settlement Association (ELSA) is preparing to welcome professionals from across the international life settlement market to the Dublin Life Settlement Symposium 2026, taking place on Tuesday, 15 September 2026, at Byrne Wallace Shields, Dublin.

The Symposium will bring together investors, providers, brokers, legal experts and other industry professionals for an afternoon examining some of the key developments shaping the global life settlement market. The programme combines expert presentations, market analysis and panel discussions, with topics ranging from European regulation and investor sentiment to artificial intelligence and the evolving role of technology within the sector.

With just one month to go, we look forward to bringing the life settlement community together in Dublin for an afternoon of insight, discussion and valuable industry connections”

Chris Wells, Executive Director, ELSA

Professor Federico Fabbrini will deliver the keynote address, exploring the legal and political landscape following Brexit and its implications for Ireland and the wider European market. The programme will also feature the latest findings from the Conning Investor Sentiment Survey, presented by Manu Mazumdar, providing insight into investor attitudes towards the life settlement asset class and expectations for the market.

Artificial intelligence will also be firmly on the agenda, with a specialist panel featuring Matthew Sheridan and Martin Kramer examining AI in underwriting and the opportunities and challenges emerging as technology plays an increasingly important role across the industry.

Alongside the programme of expert discussion, the Symposium will provide delegates with valuable opportunities to meet fellow market participants, exchange ideas and strengthen connections across the international life settlement community. ELSA would also like to thank Corry Capital Advisors, Fifth Season Investments and Preston Capital for their support of the Dublin Life Settlement Symposium 2026.

The ELSA Annual General Meeting will take place following the Symposium. With just one month remaining, professionals working within or connected to the life settlement market are encouraged to secure their place.
