

JCA and zenkenkai to Hold 50th Anniversary for over 5,000 Guests Nationwide

TOKYO, JAPAN, August 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marking the milestone with gratitude and a renewed commitment to the growth and development of the chiropractic profession in Japan

JCA and zenkenkai , officially known as the Japan Association for the Promotion of wellnes Living, promotes chiropractic care and trains practitioners throughout Japan.

To celebrate its 50th anniversary, JCA will hold the largest commemorative event in its history, the 50th Anniversary Appreciation Ceremony, on Wednesday, September 8, 2027, at LaLa arena TOKYO-BAY in Japan.

□All 5,000 Seats Fully Booked Within Six Hours□

The event will welcome 5,000 member chiropractors from across Japan, making it the largest ceremony held by JCA since its founding.

Registration reached full capacity within six hours of opening, receiving an even greater response than originally expected.

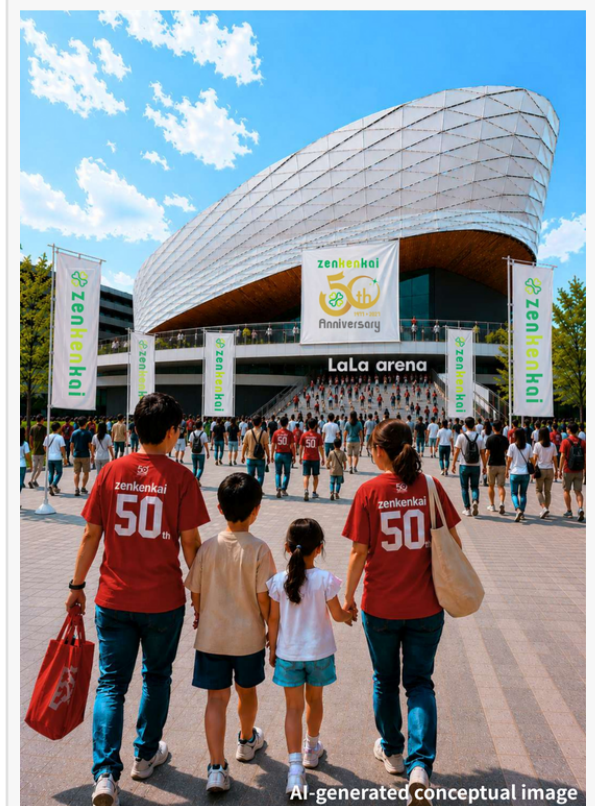

Now JCA is expanding its capacity and making further preparations so that more people may attend.

□Expanding Colabolation Across the Chiropractic Profession□

The anniversary celebration will welcome not only JCA and zenkenkai members and representatives of partner organizations, but also a wide range of people involved in the chiropractic profession.

The event will provide an opportunity to express appreciation to the members and partners across Japan who have supported JCA over the past 50 years.

It will also serve as a platform to present JCA's vision and commitment to the continued growth, wider recognition, and future development of the chiropractic profession.

JCA and zenkenkai to Hold 50th Anniversary for over 5,000 Guests Nationwide

Guests are expected to include leading experts from the global chiropractic and esthetics industries, nationally licensed professionals from various countries, and representatives from the medical field.

JCA also hopes to welcome chiropractors from other organizations who share the same commitment to the development of the profession.

The event is intended to provide an opportunity for participants to come together, strengthen cooperation across the profession, and help build the future of chiropractic.
