

Greenport Gets Its Groove: ZEY Hotel Brings Boutique Style to the North Fork

From the owner of 75 Main, the Greenport property blends boutique hotel design, Mediterranean dining and cafe culture steps from ferries, shops and the harbor

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ZEY Hotel, ZERdem Restaurant and Zey Cafe are bringing a fresh hospitality experience to Greenport, blending boutique hotel style, Mediterranean dining and cafe culture in one of the East End's most vibrant port towns. Located on Main Street, the destination places guests in the heart of Greenport, with walkable access to shops, galleries, the waterfront and ferry connections to Shelter Island and onward to the Hamptons.

ZEY Hotel offers a hip, contemporary boutique stay with eight rooms and two suites, designed for travelers seeking a more intimate and stylish alternative to the traditional East End hotel experience. The property features modern design touches, colorful interiors, comfortable guest accommodations and amenities including sumptuous bedding, indulgent minibars, Egyptian cotton bathrobes and complimentary wireless internet.

The hospitality concept is led by owner Zach Erdem, the restaurateur behind 75 Main in Southampton, who has expanded his signature East End energy to Greenport. ZErдем Restaurant, located at 314 Main Street, brings a Mediterranean-inspired dining experience to the village, with a menu known for vibrant dips, shareable plates, kebabs, seafood and warm bistro-style atmosphere.

ZErдем restaurant is now open from and welcoming guests. Reservations can be made via OpenTable:

Together, ZEY Hotel, ZErдем Restaurant and Zey Cafe position Greenport as a stylish base for a modern East End escape: part seaside village, part dining destination and part launch point for ferry-hopping to Shelter Island and the broader Hamptons. With its port-town charm and contemporary design, Zey Hotel offers visitors a relaxed but scene-aware way to experience the North Fork this season.
