

Perfect Cut Landscaping Named Finalist in 2026 Palm Beach County Community's Choice Awards

Community-voted recognition places the Boynton Beach commercial landscape company among the top three in the county's Lawn Care/Landscaping Company category

BOYNTON BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, August 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Perfect Cut Landscaping has been named a finalist in the 2026 Palm Beach County Community's Choice Awards in the Lawn Care/Landscaping Company category. The awards program, powered by LocaliQ and presented in conjunction with The Palm Beach Post, invites the local community to nominate and vote for businesses across more than 170 categories. Honorees were announced at a gala on March 12 at the Palm Beach County Convention Center, and the full results were published in The Palm Beach Post.

Landscape services for high-end estate property

Perfect Cut placed among the top three companies in the category. Because the Community's Choice Awards are decided by public vote, the recognition reflects the direct experience of property managers, board members, and residents across Palm Beach County.

The recognition comes as Perfect Cut continues to focus its operations on commercial landscape maintenance, commercial tree services, and estate management throughout Palm Beach County. The company serves HOAs, property managers, builders and developers, retail centers, and luxury estates through defined scopes, route-dense crews, and documented service plans, an operating model built for properties that require consistency and professional oversight rather than low-bid contracting.

Tree operations remain a core division handled entirely in-house, with trained crews managing trimming, removals, stump grinding, and risk mitigation. Heading into the 2026 hurricane season, that in-house capability allows Perfect Cut to address storm preparation and tree risk proactively rather than in response to emergencies. Fertilization and pest control services are delivered through East Coast Sprayers, a licensed sister company operating under the same ownership, giving commercial clients a single accountable partner for the full property.

This recognition means a lot because it came from the community, not a panel. Our whole approach is simple: show up when we say we will, do the work right, and stand behind it."

"This recognition means a lot because it came from the community, not a panel," said John Snellman, co-owner of Perfect Cut Landscaping. "Our whole approach is simple: show up when we say we will, do the work right, and stand behind it. Credit goes to our team members in the field who deliver that standard every day. We're building Perfect Cut to be a company Palm Beach County property managers, HOAs, and estate clients can count on for the long run, and this tells us we're on the right track."

Looking ahead, Perfect Cut plans to continue formalizing its commercial service programs across Palm Beach County, with an emphasis on proactive property management, tree safety, and long-term partnerships with the HOAs, property managers, and estate clients the company serves.
