

Regal Court Reporting Rises to the Occasion, Inspiring Business Leaders to Elevate Planned Giving and Community Impact

Isaiah and Stephanie Leslie earn recognition from Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County and NCRA for high-impact fundraising and community leadership

SANTA ANA, CA, UNITED STATES,
August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Community has been at the heart of Regal Court Reporting's values since the company was founded in 2007. Today, partners in life and business Isaiah and Stephanie Leslie remain deeply committed to creating meaningful impact—not only within the court reporting industry, but throughout the Orange County community they call home.

That commitment was on full display this year through two major fundraising efforts that achieved record-breaking results.

Isaiah Leslie currently serves as Co-Chair of the National Court Reporters Association Political Action Committee (NCRA PAC). At the NCRA Annual Convention in July, Leslie and the NCRA

PAC committee achieved a fundraising record for the third consecutive year, raising 34.4% more than the committee raised in 2025. The funds directly support NCRA's advocacy efforts on Capitol Hill, helping advance issues important to the court reporting profession.

Closer to home, Regal Court Reporting once again participated in Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County's annual Food From The Bar campaign. Held each June, the campaign brings together Orange County's legal community for a friendly fundraising competition through a virtual food drive. Its mission is to raise awareness and critical funds to provide nutritious food to children, families, and seniors experiencing food insecurity throughout Orange County.

Ahead of the 2026 campaign, Isaiah Leslie joined the Food From The Bar Advisory Board. Together with Stephanie Leslie and the entire Regal Court Reporting team, the collective campaign raised a record-shattering total of $220,000.

Regal Court Reporting's efforts to promote the campaign, educate the community about the opportunity to give, and encourage participation earned the company a special "Rockstar Rangler" award from Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County. Stephanie Leslie accepted the honor during a special awards ceremony recognizing the campaign's supporters and advocates.

"Giving back has never been something we view as separate from our business," said Stephanie Leslie, Co-Founder of Regal Court Reporting. "It is part of who we are. We believe businesses have an opportunity—and a responsibility—to use their influence, relationships, and resources to make a meaningful difference in the communities and industries they serve."

As one of the last independently owned, steno-only court reporting firms in California, Regal Court Reporting remains committed to supporting the future of the court reporting profession while strengthening the health and vitality of the Orange County community. Through advocacy, philanthropy, and active community involvement, Regal Court Reporting continues to carry that torch forward—one initiative, one partnership, and one opportunity to give back at a time.

About Regal Court Reporting, Inc.

Establishing the new standard of excellence in the court reporting industry, Regal Court Reporting was founded in 2007. The agency provides comprehensive court reporting and litigation support services from the point of discovery through to the end of trial. Nearly every level of support is available through Regal Court Reporting including court reporting (in depositions or trial), videography (including site inspections and independent medical exams), language interpreting, realtime, remote depositions, online depository, online scheduling, and Trial Technology. Independently owned and operated, Regal Court Reporting has earned a reputation for their best-in-class services, support, client care, and unmatched attention to detail. Unlike corporate-owned agencies, Regal Court Reporting is designed to offer a concierge level of service that clients deserve. The firm is actively looking to acquire other independently owned agencies as they look to the future. Regal Court Reporting's headquarters is located at 1551 N. Tustin Ave, Suite 750, Santa Ana, CA 92705.
