

Ember Beverages Launches Eight-Flavor Classic Energy Range With 200 mg of Caffeine and No Sugar in Any Can

PLANTATION, FL, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ember Beverages has announced the launch of its Classic Energy range, an eight-flavor line of canned energy drinks formulated with 200 milligrams of caffeine, zero grams of sugar, and 10 calories per 16 fluid ounce can.

Based in Florida, Ember Beverages developed the Classic Energy range around a consistent product formulation designed across all eight flavors. Each variety uses the same core formula, with flavor profiles created to offer different taste options within the lineup.

The Classic Energy range includes eight flavors: Citrus Charge, Electric Berry, Tropical Rush, Watermelon Surge, Peach Blaze, Arctic Frost, Mango Ignite, and Cherry Bolt.

We never made a sugared version - zero sugar was the starting point. That decision shaped two years of development and pushed us to create a consistent formulation across all eight flavors”

Every 16 fluid ounce can contains 200 milligrams of caffeine, zero grams of sugar, and 10 calories. The formulation also includes taurine and a blend of B vitamins, including B3, B5, B6, and B12. All flavors are produced without gluten or animal-derived ingredients.

The Classic Energy range is available directly to consumers through Ember Beverages’ website at \$2.99 per can. The company currently distributes its products through its direct-to-consumer channel.

Founded in Florida in 2024, Ember Beverages focuses on developing energy drink products with a variety of flavor options and a consistent formulation across its product lineup.
