

Performing Arts at Fawn Lake Celebrates its Fifth Anniversary

SPOTSYLVANIA, VA, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Founded in July 2021, Performing Arts at Fawn Lake (PAFL) brings world-class musicians from around the world to perform live in the private Fawn Lake community. Functionally, PAFL was formed as a Club, a non-profit resident-managed arts organization that operates within Fawn Lake, using the community's own community center, noted for its excellent acoustics.

Since its founding, PAFL has hosted an impressive roster of talent: Violinist Michelle Kim (the first to perform), Soprano Cree Carrico, Broadway Actor Dwayne Clark, Violist Brett Deubner, the Duo of Martinez-Forteza and Nieto-Forteza, Pianist Maxwell Foster, Baritone Prince Havelly, Musicians Intersection Trio, Pianist Duk kyu Kim, Violinist Kyungha Ko, Pianist Blair McMillen, Tenor and Broadway star J. Mark McVey, Lyric Baritone Christopheren Nomura, Pianist John Novacek, the Jazz Duo of Marcus Printup and Riza Printup, Music Director Ethan Smith-Cohen, Pianist Gerald Steichen, Cellist Wendy Sutter, Soprano and Broadway star Gay Willis, Pianist William Wolfram, and Soprano Monica Yumus.

Violinist Michelle Kim and Lyric Baritone Christopheren Nomura share responsibilities as PAFL Artistic Co-Directors, shaping the organization's programming.

What sets PAFL apart is not just the caliber of its performers, but the intimacy of the experience. Artists are hosted directly by Fawn Lake residents, creating personal connections between world-class musicians and the audiences who welcome them. Performers have consistently remarked on the warmth of their reception and the surprising quality of the listening experience in a private community setting.

About Fawn Lake:

Fawn Lake is a gated, master-planned community in Spotsylvania County, Virginia within 15 miles of Fredericksburg and 25 miles to Culpepper. Established in the late 1980s, it is home to close to 1,400 single-family residences developed around a 288-acre deep-water lake with more than seven miles of wooded shoreline. Amenities include an Arnold Palmer Virginia Masterpiece 18-hole golf course, a private country club with lakeside dining, and numerous recreational and social opportunities for its residents and guests. Fawn Lake is a family-friendly neighborhood with a mix of retirees and young families.
