Being recognized by Inc. for a third time is an incredible honor and a testament to the dedication of our entire team.”

Joe Asiala

The annual Inc. 5000 ranks the nation's fastest-growing private companies based on revenue growth over a three-year period. Earning a place on the list for the third time reflects SwiftWall's continued momentum, sustained growth, and commitment to delivering innovative solutions across industries including aviation, healthcare, commercial construction, education, manufacturing, and live events.

"Being recognized by Inc. for a third time is an incredible honor and a testament to the dedication of our entire team," said Joe Asiala, CEO of SwiftWall. "This achievement belongs to every employee, dealer, customer, and partner who has helped us grow. As we continue to innovate and expand, our focus remains the same, providing exceptional solutions while creating lasting value for the customers and communities we serve."

Since its founding, SwiftWall has transformed the temporary wall industry by providing reusable, modular wall systems that create safe, clean, and professional environments during construction, renovation, and special events. The company's continued investment in product innovation, manufacturing capabilities, and customer partnerships has fueled its rapid growth and national expansion.

"This recognition is more than a milestone, it reflects the culture we've built," Asiala added. "We're proud of how far we've come, but even more excited about where we're headed."

About INC5000

The Inc. 5000 list was launched in 1982 as the Inc. 500 and expanded in 2007 to include a broader spectrum of high-growth companies across industries. It highlights U.S.-based, privately held, independent companies that have demonstrated significant revenue growth over a three-year period. To qualify, a company must have generated at least $100,000 in revenue in its first year and at least $2 million in the most recent year. Companies are ranked by percentage revenue growth, providing a snapshot of entrepreneurial success and resilience.
